Supervisor – Cre8 Works, Macclesfield

Business and Faith in the community

This post carries a Genuine Occupational Requirement that the post holder identifies himself or herself as a Christian.

Overview:

The Cre8 Youth and Community Programme (Cre8), an initiative of the Churches in Macclesfield, began working with at-risk and socially excluded young people and their families in 2005. It provides:

- Life experiences and opportunities;
- Social support;
- Education;
- Work experience and employment.

Cre8 Works was established four years ago as a business on social enterprise principles. It has already gained a reputation for well-managed and good quality work in the areas of landscaping and grounds maintenance. The majority of the work is for the principal social landlord in Macclesfield.

The opportunity is:

- To lead teams of one or two young people/young adults to carry out practical work on site;
- To plan, schedule and organise work appropriately and manage the operations of Cre8 Works;
- To establish and manage the Cre8 Works budget;

The person we seek:

- Has a real passion for helping young people to achieve their potential;
- Is energetic with a 'can-do' attitude;
- Is reliable, conscientious and professional;
- Has proven experience of working in landscaping and grounds maintenance;
- Has practical experience of tree care and felling, preferably with a recognised qualification;
- Preferably has other useful recognised qualifications, for example in health and safety;

In return:

We offer a unique opportunity to work with young people who are keen to learn and find a way forward in life. The Cre8 Works Supervisor is a varied and challenging role in which you will play a pivotal part in the development of this innovative and growing organisation. For the right candidate, this will be a very rewarding experience.
